In the fog-shrouded streets of Victorian London, a desperate man named Edward Bellmont makes a fateful decision that will lead him down a path of darkness and despair. Driven by greed and a desire to escape his poverty-stricken existence, Edward accepts a mysterious offer from a stranger known only as the Devil Shilling. The stranger promises Edward untold riches, but at a terrible price: his soul.

Edward is initially hesitant, but the allure of wealth proves too tempting. He signs a contract with the Devil Shilling, unaware of the horrors that await him. As Edward begins to amass his fortune, his life spirals out of control. He becomes consumed by greed and paranoia, and his relationships with his loved ones crumble. He is haunted by nightmares and visions of the dead, and he begins to lose his grip on reality.

As Edward's descent into madness continues, he crosses paths with a beautiful and enigmatic woman named Sarah. Sarah is a medium who can communicate with the dead, and she senses that Edward is in grave danger. She tries to warn him of the terrible fate that awaits him, but Edward is too consumed by his greed to listen.

In a desperate attempt to save Edward, Sarah enlists the help of a renowned exorcist named Father Michael. Together, they confront the Devil Shilling and the forces of darkness that have ensnared Edward's soul. A battle for Edward's soul ensues, and the outcome is far from certain.
