Death Valley is a vast and unforgiving desert located in the southwestern United States. It is the hottest, driest, and lowest place in North America. Death Valley is also home to some of the most beautiful and otherworldly landscapes on Earth.

Scott Lively knows Death Valley well. He spent many years living on the streets of the desert, addicted to drugs and alcohol. Scott's life was a living hell. He was constantly hungry, cold, and sick. He was also constantly afraid for his life. But even in the darkest of times, Scott never gave up hope.

One day, Scott had a life-changing experience. He was sitting in a homeless shelter when he heard a voice telling him to get help. Scott listened to the voice and checked himself into a rehab center. It was the best decision he ever made.

Scott spent several months in rehab, where he learned how to overcome his addiction and rebuild his life. After rehab, Scott got a job and an apartment. He also started going to church, where he found a community of people who loved and supported him.

Today, Scott is a successful businessman and a devoted husband and father. He is also a passionate advocate for people who are struggling with addiction and homelessness. Scott's story is a powerful reminder that even in the darkest of times, there is always hope.

In his book, Live From Death Valley, Scott shares his incredible story of overcoming addiction, homelessness, and despair to find hope and redemption. This book is a must-read for anyone who has ever struggled with addiction or homelessness, or who knows someone who has.
