

Met Her on the Mountain: A Heart-Pounding Novel of Suspense and Adventure

From the acclaimed author of the bestselling The Girl on the Train, comes a heart-pounding novel of suspense and adventure that will keep you on the edge of your seat from the very first page.

When Sarah meets Jack on a remote mountain trail, she's instantly drawn to his rugged good looks and charming personality. But little does she know that this chance encounter will soon turn into a nightmare. As they hike deeper into the wilderness, Sarah begins to realize that there's more to Jack than meets the eye. He's secretive, evasive, and his stories don't seem to add up. And when Sarah discovers a hidden backpack filled with suspicious items, her fears are confirmed: Jack is not who he says he is.
