Today, their messages are still relevant and can help us to experience a revival in our own lives. Here are two of their most important messages:

1. The Importance of Conversion

Both Finney and Spurgeon believed that conversion is the most important decision a person can make. Conversion is the moment when we turn from our sins and turn to God. It is the moment when we are born again and become new creatures in Christ.

Finney preached about the need for conversion with great urgency. He said, "You must be converted, or you will be damned." He believed that there was no middle ground. We are either saved or we are lost. There is no other option.

Spurgeon also emphasized the importance of conversion. He said, "Conversion is the turning point of a man's life. It is the moment when he passes from death to life, from darkness to light, from bondage to freedom." He believed that conversion is the only way to experience true happiness and fulfillment in life.

How can we experience conversion? Finney and Spurgeon agreed that conversion is a work of God. It is not something that we can do on our own. We need to ask God to forgive us of our sins and to give us a new heart.

If you have never experienced conversion, I urge you to pray to God for it today. Ask Him to forgive you of your sins and to give you a new heart. He will hear your prayer and He will save you.

2. The Power of Prayer

Finney and Spurgeon also believed that prayer is essential for the Christian life. Prayer is how we communicate with God and how we receive His power in our lives.

Finney said, "Prayer is the mightiest engine in the universe." He believed that prayer can move mountains and change lives. He urged his listeners to pray often and to pray with faith.

Spurgeon also emphasized the importance of prayer. He said, "Prayer is the breath of the soul." He believed that prayer is essential for our spiritual growth and for our ability to live a victorious Christian life.

How can we pray effectively? Finney and Spurgeon agreed that prayer should be simple and sincere. We should not try to impress God with our eloquence or our knowledge. We should simply talk to Him as we would to a friend.

We should also pray with faith. We need to believe that God is listening to our prayers and that He will answer them according to His perfect will.

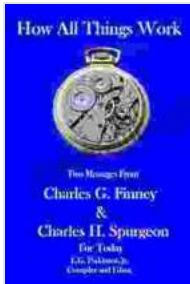

If you want to experience the power of prayer in your own life, I urge you to start praying regularly. Pray often, pray with faith, and pray with sincerity. God will hear your prayers and He will answer them in His perfect time.
