A Dance of Blood and Betrayal

In the tumultuous years leading up to the Civil War, the Southern states smoldered with racial tensions. As the institution of slavery cast its long shadow, the lives of free people of color became entangled in a web of suspicion, fear, and violence.

Elijah Sutton, a mulatto slave who fought his way to freedom, finds himself at the heart of this explosive conflict. Ambitious and determined, he steps into the treacherous world of politics, seeking to challenge the oppressive system that has held his people captive.

But his path is fraught with danger. The ruthless plantation owners, the white supremacist mobs, and the shadowy figures of the Underground Railroad all have their own agendas. As loyalties are tested and betrayals are uncovered, Elijah must confront the true nature of power and the sacrifices required for freedom.
